

bwin today

Look for the secure padlock icon in the address bar of your browser.

Chrome, Safari, Internet Explorer and Firefox browsers display a padlock in the URL field to indicate "safe" websites. You can click on the padlock to confirm that the certificate belongs to the same company as the website you are trying to visit.

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems

How to identify legitimate websites | Columbia University Information Systems